

Movie Matinees for adults start at noon in our meeting room. Bring a brown bag lunch, and we'll provide drinks and popcorn. Check with the Library for movie titles; we can't publish them due to the licensing agreement. Visit the Library for some great entertainment!

Monday, January 23 – Judy Holliday won an Oscar for her performance as the quintessential “dumb broad” in this great 1950 comedy. Broderick Crawford, her crass corrupt boyfriend, decides she needs to be more refined so he hires a reporter to “smarten her up,” but the situation quickly gets out of hand.

Monday, February 20 – Jimmy Cagney stars in this Billy Wilder comedy as a Coca-Cola executive in West Berlin at the height of the Cold War. His life gets very complicated when his boss's daughter comes for a visit and ends up marrying a Communist. Enjoy the laughs as he tries to sort out the situation before his boss arrives in Berlin.

Monday, March 19 – Meet Elwood P. Dowd (Jimmy Stewart), a mild mannered, wealthy, and charming man who is happy to get through life by creating his own reality--a reality that includes an imaginary six foot three inch rabbit.

Monday, April 16 – Jimmy Stewart is back again this month portraying a photographer confined to a wheelchair in this Alfred Hitchcock classic. He passes the time watching his neighbors across the courtyard. When he witnesses a chain of suspicious events, he enlists his glamorous girlfriend (Grace Kelly) to investigate.

Monday, May 21 – Sandra Bullock stars in this true story of a homeless young man who becomes a star football player with the love and support of the family who offers him a home.