A. Kristen
Nellie: A Cat on Her Own by Natalie Babbitt
"I love it still because it shows that we can rise up from sad and lonely times in life to have new, magical experiences."

B. Mason
A Library Book for Bear by Bonny Becker
"It's an odd truth that picture books starring bears who are named 'Bear' are almost always great."

C. Cary
Mother Goose by Blanche Fisher Wright
"I grew up with Mother Goose and was fascinated by the pictures and rhymes from another time."

D. Jake
The Jolly Postman or Other People's Letters by Janet & Allan Ahlberg
"This book, to me, is the definition of fun and imaginative."

E. Devin
Dragons Love Tacos by Adam Rubin
"Kids will get a laugh out of it, for sure!"

F. Sam
Love You Forever by Robert Munsch
"I still (I think) have the copy I read as a little girl, and I remember reading it to my younger brother."

G. Kelcey
Together by Emma Dodd
"This book is special to me because my family has always been very close."

H. Katherine
Katy and the Big Snow by Virginia Lee Burton
"As a child, this book's illustrations captivated me!"

I. Sally
Blueberries for Sal by Robert McCloskey
"I read this book to my children and I have given this book to many first-time moms."
