Patrick

A Lost in the Valley of Death: A Story of Obsession and Danger in the Himalayas

In the vein of Jon Krakauer's Into the Wild, a riveting work of narrative nonfiction centering on the unsolved disappearance of an American backpacker in India—one of at least two dozen tourists who have met a similar fate in the remote and storied Parvati Valley.

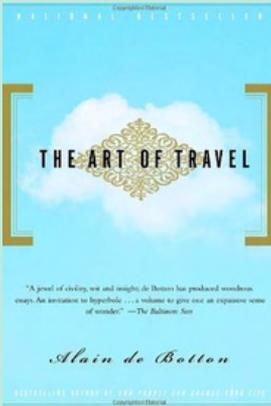

A

B Art of Travel

With the same intelligence and inouciant charm he brought to How Proust Can Save Your Life, de Botton considers the pleasures of anticipation; the allure of the exotic, and the value of noticing everything from a seascape in Barbados to the takeoffs at Heathrow.

B

C Architecture of Happiness

The Architecture of Happiness is a dazzling and generously illustrated journey through the philosophy and psychology of architecture and the indelible connection between our identities and our locations.

D Civilization: The West and the Rest

How did the West overtake its Eastern rivals? And has the zenith of Western power now passed? Ferguson argues that beginning in the fifteenth century, the West developed six powerful new concepts, that the Rest lacked, allowing it to surge past all other competitors.

E Travels with Lizbeth: Three Years on the Road and on the Streets

Lars Eighner's account of his descent into homelessness and his adventures on the streets has moved, charmed, and amused generations of readers.

A Pity the Reader

The art and craft of writing by one of the few grandmasters of American literature, a bonanza for writers and readers co-written by Kurt Vonnegut's former student.

B On Writing

Originally part of her larger work The Eye of the Story but never before published in a stand-alone volume, On Writing is a handbook every fiction writer, whether novice or master, should keep within arm's reach.

C Lighter: Let Go of the Past, Connect with the Present, and Expand the Future

A radically compassionate plan for turning inward and lifting the heaviness that prevents us from healing ourselves and the world, from the New York Times bestselling author of Clarity & Connection

D A Raisin in the Sun

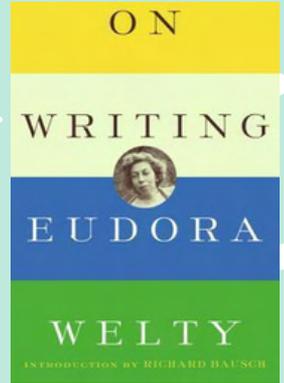

Hansberry's award-winning drama about the hopes and aspirations of a struggling, working-class family living on the South Side of Chicago connected profoundly with the psyche of black America--and changed American theater forever.

E The Wasteland: Prufrock, the Hollow Men and Other Poems

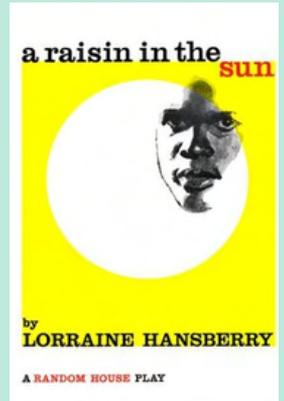

A collection of T.S. Eliot's most important poems, including "The Waste Land" and "The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock."
